

PRESS RELEASE

Olivier Le Cornec nominated Chief Executive Officer of Navya

Villeurbanne, France, January 5th, 2023 – 5.45 PM CET – The Supervisory Board of Navya (FR0013018041), has appointed Olivier Le Cornec as Chief Executive Officer of Navya as of today, replacing Sophie Desormière. Currently Director of R&D and Technologies at Navya, Olivier Le Cornec will keep his current functions in addition to his mandate as CEO.

With this nomination, Navya's Supervisory Board has chosen a person with recognized expertise in fields that represent high stakes for the company, while maintaining the current balance of skills and organization.

Charles Beigbeder, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Navya : “Olivier Le Cornec has made an important contribution to Navya through his technological and strategic choices. He has my full trust, as well as that of the other members of the Board, to successfully pursue the projects underway and to carry out Navya's technological roadmap.”

Olivier Le Cornec, Chief Technology Officer and CEO of Navya: “I would like to thank the Supervisory Board for its trust. I know that I can count on the quality and commitment of Navya's teams to ensure that we continue to pursue our roadmap as closely as possible to the needs of the market and our customers. We are in the process of realizing important technological advances, which constitute a solid technological and commercial foundation for Navya.”

The Supervisory Board also notes the resignation of Jean-Marc Janailac from his duties on the Supervisory Board and thanks him for all his contribution.
